

Thursday 3 July 2013

Session 1: 11.30 – 13.00

PANEL ONE: THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES OF CONFLICTS OF LEGAL NORMS

Chair: Professor Julian Rivers

Valentin Jeutner, Gonville and Caius College, University of Cambridge

Irresolvable Conflicts of Legal Norms

Ka Lok Yip, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva

Systemic Integration and Lex Specialis – Legal Tools in the Service of Unity or Secret Agents of the Hegemonic Structure?

Vijay Padmanabhan, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee

Separation Anxiety

PANEL TWO: MIGRATION ISSUES WITHIN THE EU AND THE ECHR

Chair: Dr. Philip Syrpis

Christina Götzelmann, University College Dublin

Blurred Boundaries of Sovereignty – The Impact of EU Law in Family-Based Migration

Lucia Brieskova, Oxford Brookes University

The Clash of Legal Norms in the Protection of Rights of Migrant Workers in Europe: The Case of Intra-corporate Transferees

Pinar Canga, City University London

The Detention of Undocumented Children in the UK and Turkey as an Immigration Policy in the Presence of International Human Rights Law

Thursday 3 July 2013

Session 2: 14.00 to 15.30

PANEL THREE: EU CONSTITUTIONALISM

Chair: Miss Nina Boeger

Lisa Ginsborg, European University Institute (EUI)

Indirect Legal Challenges to the 1267 Sanctions and Conflicting Views of 'Constitutionalism'

François Finck, College of Europe, Warsaw

From Competition to Constitutionalisation: The Role of Human Rights in the Rise of Courts in the International Legal Order

Julien Sterck, Trinity College Dublin

Protecting French Constitutional Identity: A Step Forward in the Process of European Integration

PANEL FOUR: SOCIOECONOMIC RIGHTS AND CORPORATE REGULATION

Chair: Dr. Clair Gammage-Dias

Cosmas Anyakudo, Brunel University

Finding the Middle Ground between Free Market Economy and Legal Mandation Considerations in Emerging Economies; A Case Study of Corporate Social Responsibility in Nigeria

Perowei Subai, University of Newcastle

In Search of A Panacea to the Malaise of Oil Theft and Sabotage in Nigeria's Petroleum
Industry: From Increased Derivation to Direct Indigenous Participation

Temitope Akeremale, University of Swansea

Could Emphasising Socioeconomic Rights in International Law Be the Veritable Instrument for Lasting Peace in Conflict States?

Thursday 3 July 2013

Session 3: 16.00 to 17.30

PANEL FIVE: INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL LAW

Chair: Dr. Sujitha Subramanian

Johanna Hoekstra, University of Essex

Harmonisation of Contract Law in International Commerce: The Interplay between Regional European and International Initiatives

Selim Ciger, University of Bristol

Harmonisation and Unification of Multimodal Transport Law

Annika Wolf, European University Institute (EUI)

Forum Shopping for Effective Corporate Rescue: Germany, UK and EU

PANEL SIX: INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW

Chair: Dr. Maureen Owor

Stoyan Panov, University of Birmingham

When All Norms and Mechanisms Seem to Clash: International Crimes, Immunities, Jurisdiction and the Obligation 'Extradite or Prosecute' in Domestic and International Courts

Letizia Lo Giacco, University of Lund

The Paradox of Prosecuting Crimes of Torture

Anna Marie Brennan, University College Cork

The Emerging Customary Crime of Transnational Terrorism under International Law: An Examination of How the Special Tribunal for Lebanon's Interlocutory Decision Could Impact Future Practice at the International Criminal Court

Friday 4 July 2014

Session 1: 10.00 to 11.30

PANEL SEVEN: CONFLICT OF LEGAL SPACES AND FRAGMENTATION IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Chair: Ms Chris Willmore

Noppadon Detsomboonrut, University of Edinburgh

Value-based Conflict of Norm Rules in International Law

Elodie Tranchez, Webster University, Geneva

From Conflicting Legal Norms to Conflicting Legal Spaces: How Can Human Rights Maintain Their Efficiency?

Günes Ünüvar, University of Copenhagen

Interest Conflicts in International Investment law: A Historic-Legal Analysis

PANEL EIGHT: INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT LAW

Chair: Professor Paddy Ireland

Jure Zrilic, University of Cambridge

Arbitrators and the Making of the Investment Treaty Constitution

Tara Van Ho, University of Essex

A Human Rights Based Test for Investment Arbitrators

Lu Wang, University of Liverpool

Competitive Neutrality and International Investment Law: Fair Play or International Protectionism?

Friday 4 July 2014

Session 2: 12.00 to 13.30

PANEL NINE: INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT TREATIES

Chair: Professor Jonathan Hill

Rav Pratap Singh, University of Cambridge

Corruption Issues in Investor-State Arbitration – An Uneasy Relationship?

Qiang Ren, University of Liverpool

Is the Content of Exceptions in International Investment Agreements States-Value-Oriented?:
A Fresh Look at Arbitral Practice and Policy Developments in Treaty-Making

Athanase Popov, University of Luxembourg

Issues Raised by Investor-State Dispute Settlement under Future EU International Investment
Agreements about the Autonomy of the EU Legal Order

PANEL TEN: UN COLLECTIVE SECURITY

Chair: Professor Antonia Layard

Irene Couzigou, University of Aberdeen

The UN Security Council Action under Chapter VII of the UN Charter and International Human Rights

Miriam Cullen, University of Copenhagen

Does the Ukraine Trump Syria? UN Security Council Practice and the Search for International Justice

Themis Tzimas, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

From Syria to Ukraine and from Solely State Security to Human Security: The Fragmentation of the Collective Security System and the Constitutional Response

Friday 4 July 2014

Session 3: 15.30 to 17.00

PANEL ELEVEN: INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

Chair: Professor Steven Greer

Gerard Downey, Trinity College Dublin

Islamic Finance in Opposition to Contemporary Finance and Its Provision Guaranteed by Article 9 and the Right to Religious Expression

Yingxi Bi, National University of Ireland

Human Rights and Drug Control: Parallel, Conflict and Integration

Ally Possi, University of Pretoria

Human Rights within African Regional Economic Communities: An Existing Conflict between Integration Norms and State Sovereignty

Majida Ismael, University of Liverpool

Tale of Two Uncompleted Attempts: Resolving Conflict of Norms between Desire and Reality

PANEL TWELVE: INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Chair: Ms Chris Willmore

Diogo De Sousa e Alvim, University of Edinburgh

Conflict and Complementarity of Transboundary Environmental Norms in Europe Departing Point: OECD

Lorena Martínez Hernández, Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Spain

What Role for Investor State Arbitration to Tackle Climate Change?

Justin Bendel, University of Edinburgh

Public Interest Claims versus State Private Interests in International Environmental Conflicts